- * The Society has fielded two volleyball teams for tonight's Intramurals Volleyball Tournament. Douglas is captain of FOAD and Rob Peeren is the captain of FOAD-TOO.

Douglas announced that Doreen Godwin of Co-op Education has booked a room for the CIPS (Canadian Information Processing Society) information seminar, to be held next Friday (March 22) from noon to 1pm. Carl Jones will be the CIPS speaker. Rob noted that CIPS will be introducing a scholarship for Computing Science.

For the Applied Sciences Volleyball Tournament next Friday (March 22), Mike Lee said that all departments have fielded teams. Computing Science will be fielding two teams at the event. Mike indicated that there is space for a third team from Computing Science, however, there was insufficient interest expressed by the members to field a third team.
