- c. This motion serves as a follow-up to a previous motion passed by the society to issue refunds to attendees and reimburse volunteers after such promises were made. While the refunds were issued in order to honor the commitments made by the Chair, the society emphasizes that these actions were not condoned and were inconsistent with CSSS policy. This censure seeks to formally acknowledge these breaches of responsibility and to reaffirm the society's commitment to transparency, accountability, and proper governance in all future events.
- d. This motion is being brought forward for reasons of corruption, misappropriation of funds, and disregard for rules, and on the basis of the following concerns:
 - i. Unauthorized Financial Promises to Volunteers
 - ii. Preferential Treatment to Personal Acquaintances
